

Interest rates are rising.

Is it time for your mortgage health check?

It's time to see if your mortgage still fits your needs, but until you review your loan, you run the risk of paying much more than you should.

Speak to us as soon as possible about reviewing your loan, including

- extending your repayment time
- refinancing at a lower rate
- changing your repayment structure
- considering fixed or variable interest, or a 'split' loan to take advantage of both options

The loan you started with might not be the best loan for you now.
It's time to look at all your options, all in the one place at WLF Financial Services.
